People's Bank has unveiled a new Affinity Credit Card in partnership with the Old Boys' Association (OBA) of Bandaranayake College, Gampaha. Clive Fonseka, CEO and GM, People's Bank; Kasun Gunarathne, Principal of Bandaranayake College and President of the OBA; Air Chief Marshal (Retired) Udeni Rajapaksa, a distinguished alumnus; and Sachthra Praba, Executive Secretary of the OBA and several other representatives attended the event.

People's Bank Card Center was represented by Nilmini Premalal, Deputy General Manager—Payments, Process Management and Quality Assurance; Jayanath Dias, Head of Cards; Aruna Danthanarayana, Manager—Card Business and Marketing; and Chalani Senanayake, Manager—Card Business & Products.

The OBA was further represented by Dulip Somirathna, Senior Assistant Secretary to the President; Harsha Randeniya, OBA Member and Country Manager—Microsoft Sri Lanka and Maldives; Aruna Rajapaksha, Head of Airport Management at Airport and Aviation Services Sri Lanka; and several other officials. The Bandaranayake College Affinity Credit Card has been specially designed for OBA members and can be utilized for various purposes, including settling OBA membership fees.

A portion of the annual fee collected from each card will be donated directly to support the school's development initiatives.
