People's Leasing and Finance (PLC), one of Sri Lanka's leading Non-Bank Financial Institutions, celebrated its 30th anniversary, marking three decades of empowering individuals, entrepreneurs, and businesses through innovative financial solutions.

Established in 1996 as a subsidiary of People's Bank, PLC has expanded its presence island-wide with a strong focus on financial inclusivity, customer service, and sustainable growth. The company has embraced digital transformation and operational excellence while supporting MSMEs and local communities.

Over the years, PLC has earned numerous local and international accolades for its service excellence, governance, and innovation. To mark this milestone, PLC has planned several commemorative initiatives and CSR projects throughout the year, reaffirming its commitment to empowering communities and contributing to Sri Lanka's economic development.
