People’s Leasing and Finance celebrates Women’s Day

People’s Leasing and Finance marks International Women’s Day, celebrating strength, resilience, and empowerment.

In a vibrant celebration of professional excellence and resilience, People’s Leasing and Finance marked International Women’s Day at its Head Office, bringing together the company’s female workforce for an event organized by the People’s Leasing Sports & Welfare Club. The ceremony was graced by Sanjeewa Bandaranayake, Chief Executive Officer/General Manager, and Udesh Gunawardena, Chief Operating Officer, alongside members of the senior management, to recognize the integral role women play in the company’s sustained success. A key highlight of the event was the honoring of long-serving female employees whose steadfast dedication has helped propel PLC to new heights. These veteran staff members shared invaluable insights with the younger generation, offering guidance on maintaining a healthy work-life balance while managing family commitments. Sanjeewa Bandaranayake emphasized the vital importance of celebrating women’s unique contributions to problem-solving and strategic growth. He reaffirmed PLC’s commitment to being an equal-opportunity employer that fosters a safe and supportive environment for all. To conclude the festivities, the Sports and Welfare Club presented commemorative gifts to all female staff members in the Head Office and branches as a gesture of appreciation for their hard work and continued loyalty.
