

President Ranil Wickremesinghe meets Chinese President Xi Jinping

Posted on

President Ranil Wickremesinghe and Chinese President Xi Jinping.

President Xi Jinping of the People's Republic of China stated that China is committed to assisting Sri Lanka in achieving economic stability without any political agenda.

He expressed his desire to collaborate closely with President Ranil Wickremesinghe.

Furthermore, President Xi Jinping acknowledged that Sri Lanka's speech at the United Nations General Assembly, delivered by President Ranil Wickremesinghe, reflected the country's strategic independence and its neutral stance.

President Xi Jinping of the People's Republic of China stated that China is committed to assisting Sri Lanka in achieving economic stability without any political agenda. He expressed his desire to collaborate closely with President Ranil Wickremesinghe.

Furthermore, President Xi Jinping acknowledged that Sri Lanka's speech at the United Nations General Assembly, delivered by President Ranil Wickremesinghe, reflected the country's strategic independence and its neutral stance.

In response, President Ranil Wickremesinghe expressed his appreciation for China's longstanding support to Sri Lanka and commended President Xi Jinping for his consistently friendly attitude towards Sri Lanka. He informed President Xi Jinping about plans to construct a Sri Lankan Buddhist temple and stupa in commemoration of the visit of Faxian monk to Sri Lanka and President Xi Jinping expressed China's support for these activities.

President Ranil Wickremesinghe expressed Sri Lanka's hope to establish a maritime economic corridor linking China, Myanmar, Sri Lanka and South Africa. President Xi Jinping acknowledged the challenging nature of this endeavour and encouraged President Wickremesinghe to take the lead.

The conversation also emphasized the significance of positioning Sri Lanka as an economic hub in the Indian Ocean region. President Ranil Wickremesinghe underlined Sri Lanka's commitment to preserving peace and the identity of the Indian Ocean region, advocating for cooperation between India and China to foster development in Asia.

President Ranil Wickremesinghe disclosed Sri Lanka's ambition to achieve developed status by 2048 and he highlighted the substantial foundation provided by the eight-step program unveiled at the Third "Belt and Road" forum for International Cooperation.

Additionally, the leaders discussed the ongoing conflict in the Gaza Strip.

