

President Ranil Wickremesinghe visits Arugambay

Posted on

President Ranil Wickremesinghe along with S. M. M. Muszhaaraff, Member of Parliament; Sagala Ratnayaka, Senior Advisor to the President on National Security and Chief of Presidential Staff; A.L.M. Ataullah, Member of Parliament; W.D. Weerasinghe, Member of Parliament; and Senthil Thondaman, Eastern Province Governor.

President Ranil Wickremesinghe is the first president of Sri Lanka to visit Arugambay. The President emphasized the need to develop Arugambay and the potential of the Eastern Province's tourism industry. The areas bound by nature's beauty are an asset to the country. The President and his team assessed the areas and engaged in discussions to solve problems and provide solutions.

President being welcomed to Peanut Farm by Mathi and Glenda Parthipan.

President being welcomed to Arugambay Roccas.

Arugambay Podbay staff.

Arugambay Roccos staff.

W.D. Weerasinghe, MP with Mathi & Glenda Parthipan; A.M. Naleem; G.P.G. Sandika Thushara; S. Gunesinghe; Perumal Partheepan, N. Sadha; and others.

Staff from Paper Moon Kudils; Arugambay Roccos, and Arugambay Podbay.