Ranjanas Ceramic Continues As Associate Sponsor Of SLIA

Ranjanas Ceramic entered into a partnership with the Sri Lanka Institute of Architects (SLIA) once again for the year 2013 as an Associate Sponsor. This marks the second consecutive year that SLIA has partnered up with Ranjanas Ceramic.

Speaking at the ceremony to mark the signing of the Memorandum of Understanding for this partnership Archt Ranjan Nadesapillai, President of SLIA said, “the Ranjanas Group has a long history and is technologically advanced. Furthermore, in the building industry they concentrate on dealing with reputed brands and introducing internationally renowned brands to Sri Lanka. So we are very pleased to collaborate with them.”

D Vigneshwaran, Managing Director – Ranjanas Ceramic said, “I would like to thank the President of SLIA and all those who have given us the opportunity to be an Associate Sponsor once again for 2013. Ranjanas is different from others in terms of the quality of the product and the after sales support that we give to the customers. So today we pledge that we will not affiliate with cheaper products in the market and we will keep the dignity of the product.”

Ranjanas Ceramic has established themselves as one of the most prominent companies of Sri Lanka and this partnership between the SLIA and Ranjanas

Ceramic precedes ‘Architect 2013′, the annual sessions of SLIA. This year’s National Conference in Architecture, based on the theme “Think Smart – Innovative Enterprise”, will host a number of presentations by locally and internationally reputed professionals. The Members’ work and Trade Exhibition will create an opportunity for the public to see architectural creations by many Architectural Practices in Sri Lanka while the Trade Exhibition will showcase a range of materials available in the industry.
