Seylan Bank joined hands as the official banking partner for the Construct Exhibition 2019, which was organized by the National Construction Association of Sri Lanka (NCASL). It was held for the 19th consecutive year. The exhibition focused on civil construction, quarrying, construction materials, and other construction-related trades. The annual event attracted thousands of key decision-makers in the industry under one roof. Speaking about the patronage Tilan Wijeyesekera, Deputy General Manager - Retail Banking said, "Seylan Bank was proud to be the official banking partner of the annual Construct Exhibition for the fourth consecutive year. Seylan Home Loans played a vital role in providing financial solutions and advice to consumers looking for financial assistance in making their dreams a reality. As the bank with a heart, Seylan offers competitive interest rates and exceptional services. The Construct Exhibition was a platform that brought service providers and consumers to a common space and we are happy to have been a part of this success". Susantha Liyanarachchi, Chairman, NCASL, sharing his thoughts on the partnership, commented, "The Construct Exhibition has been one of the most effective events for the construction industry in the country. We are excited to have shared the forum with Seylan Bank this year. The exhibition was visited by thousands of contractors as well as potential homeowners looking for a complete solution for all their construction requirements. Seylan Bank has been able to successfully aid them in selecting a service that would make their dreams come true."
