

Seylan Bank Partners With Albilad Bank, Saudi Arabia For Remittances To Sri Lanka

Posted on

Seylan Bank, in partnership with Bank Albilad, has commenced a remittance service to Sri Lanka enabling the Sri Lankan migrant workers in Saudi Arabia to remit funds to their loved ones in Sri Lanka as well as remit funds to any account at Seylan Bank or any bank in Sri Lanka.

Enjaz Banking Service, the remittance arm of Albilad Bank, caters to the remittance needs of the Sri Lankan community in the Kingdom.

Seylan Bank's banking centres are geared to service money recipients who call over to pick up funds (payment on identification) while all Seylan Bank account holders are provided with a Visa debit card to draw money from the islandwide ATM network or to purchase goods and services through any Visa Merchant.
