

Seylan Bank Wins Five Awards At SLIM NASCO 2019

The Sales Team of Seylan Bank won five accolades at the SLIM NASCO Awards 2019, for the second consecutive year.

The team brought home three Silver awards, one Bronze and one merit award under the categories of Front Liner, Sales Executive, Territory Manager, National Sales Manager, and Sales Administration respectively.

Seylan's sales force is the youngest in the industry, formed in 2015. The team has been able to achieve their fullest potential within a very short period of time, assuring the organization of a solid future with progress.

Gamika De Silva, Head of Marketing and Sales, Seylan Bank, speaking of the awards said, "I'm extremely proud of my team and of their efforts in achieving such great recognitions for Seylan Bank for the second consecutive year. Our sales force add immense value to us as a corporate. Being a great salesperson is not an easy task, it is a combination of commitment and ambition together with faith to achieve the best. I'm beyond happy to see our efforts in building a solid sales force be recognized by the National body of Marketing. I take this opportunity to congratulate the team and their efforts once again and wish them all the success in times to come."

The ceremony awarded Bronze to Mark Taylor in the National Sales Manager category, Silver to Alfred Russell in the Territory Manager category, Silver to Prajani Peiris in the Executive/Supervisor category, Silver to Wasantha Bandara in the Front Liner category and Merit to Sujani Alwis in the Sales and Administration category.

The SLIM NASCO Awards theme for this year was “Excel. Engage. Ensure – Beyond all Limits”. The annual ceremony rewards high performing individuals for their efforts and achievements in the sales fraternity and provides national-level recognition across all trades.
