

Shashi Kandambi, Honored by APB for Remarkable Achievement and Outstanding Contribution to Banking Sector

Several individuals from the Banking sector were felicitated by The Association of Professional Bankers.

The Association of Professional Bankers (APB) felicitated Shashi Kandambi, the General Manager and CEO of the National Savings Bank (NSB), for her remarkable achievement in assuming the leadership role at NSB.

The felicitation ceremony took place, and eminent figures from the banking sector, including B A S H Preena, President, APB, council members, members of the APB community and distinguished figures from the banking industry gathered to acknowledge and celebrate Kandambi's ascent to the helm of NSB.

Shashi Kandambi, a former president of the APB, has long been recognized for her exemplary contributions to the banking sector. Her illustrious career and unwavering dedication to advancing the industry have earned her widespread acclaim and admiration. The APB expresses its pleasure in welcoming Kandambi back into its fold, recognizing her as a beacon of excellence and leadership in the banking community.

The event also witnessed the felicitation of several other prominent figures in the Sri Lankan banking landscape. Among them were Aravinda Perera, Chairman of PABC; Clive Fonseka, CEO/General Manager of People's Bank; and Kelum Edirisinghe, CEO/Director of NDB.

These individuals have left an indelible mark on the banking industry through their vision, expertise, and commitment to excellence.

The felicitation ceremony served as a testament to these leaders' outstanding achievements and contributions, who continue to shape the future of banking in Sri Lanka and inspire the next generation of industry professionals.

Shashi Kandambi's elevation to the position of GM/CEO at NSB marks a significant milestone in her career and the annals of Sri Lanka's banking history. Her exemplary leadership and unwavering commitment to excellence are poised to drive NSB to new heights of success and prosperity. Her appointment as the GM/CEO of NSB represents a new chapter in her illustrious career, promising to usher in an era of innovation, growth, and excellence for NSB and the Sri Lankan banking landscape.