

SLT-MOBITEL partners with the Online Entrepreneurs Club of Sri Lanka

Imantha Wijekoon, Chief Business Officer Consumer Business, SLT and Lasantha Wickramasinghe, Director, Online Entrepreneurs Club of Sri Lanka, with the signed agreement. Representing SLT-MOBITEL were Chethana Attanayake, GM – Regional Business (Metro), Sugath R De Silva, GM – Consumer Business Support, Ranga Jayawardhana, GM – Enterprise Business, and Asela Jayathilaka, DGM – Consumer Sales Support. From OECSL, Janitha Wickramasinghe, and Ashan Madusanka, Committee Members were also present.

SLT-MOBITEL and the Online Entrepreneurs Club of Sri Lanka (OECSL) signed a partnership to boost digital entrepreneurship nationwide. SLT-MOBITEL's partnership with OECSL aims to boost Sri Lanka's digital economy and support entrepreneurship. Signed by Imantha Wijekoon from SLT and Lasantha Wickramasinghe from OECSL, this collaboration will provide OECSL members with access to specialized products and services, enhancing their digital operations.

It will also expand SLT- MOBITELE's market reach and connect with digital entrepreneurs, fostering innovation and offering essential connectivity solutions for competitive growth.

Imantha Wijekoon, Chief Business Officer of Consumer Business at SLT, emphasized his commitment to Sri Lanka's digital future, stating that, "At SLT-MOBITELE, we are dedicated to enabling connectivity and innovation. Our partnership with OECSL aims to uplift digital entrepreneurs and freelancers, providing them with the tools and services they need to thrive in a competitive landscape."

Lasantha Wickramasinghe, Director of the Online Entrepreneurs Club of Sri Lanka, stated, "We are proud to partner with SLT-MOBITELE to provide meaningful value to our members. This collaboration will open new opportunities for digital entrepreneurs and freelancers by offering essential tools and services needed for success in the digital economy. Together, we are enhancing Sri Lanka's digital ecosystem and promoting innovation and growth for online entrepreneurs across the island."