SLT VisionCom officially launched the Sri Lanka Telecom PEO TV 'Ranaviru Pranama' package as a tribute to the Armed Forces at the Ministry of Defence. This is the company's way of paying tribute to the Armed Forces for the yeoman services rendered to our nation.

The first connection of the Ranaviru Pranama package was presented by the Defence Secretary, Gotabaya Rajapaksa to the war hero Sirikumara, who among many had rendered selfless service towards safeguarding the country. This was handed over to him in the presence of Leisha De Silva Chandrasena, the Chairperson of Sri Lanka Telecom and Thusha Weerasooriya, the CEO of SLT VisionCom.

Speaking at the occasion, the SLT Chairperson Leisha De Silva Chandrasena said "the launch of the 'Ranaviru Pranama' package signifies the respect the SLT has for the Armed Forces that helped to free the country of the scourge of terrorism and thereby unite the nation under one flag. We are providing the best in entertainment with futuristic cutting edge technology through this package to our war heroes. It will no doubt give wholesome entertainment and informative news broadcasts in popular channels at a very concessionary price.”

The Ranaviru Pranama package exclusively caters to the Sri Lanka Armed Forces. It consists of an exciting array of 23 local and international channels along with unique features such as TSTV (Time Shifted TV), Rewind TV (Pause, Rewind live television) and video on-demand content (VOD) plus a host of value added services. One of the novel features included in this service is the opportunity for customer flexibility to watch television at any time in any weather condition.
