

Suzuki Maruti Customers Get Tax Break On New Prices

Posted on

AMW has made an announcement that the company will bear a significant part of the increase in duty announced last month.

The company announced that customers awaiting delivery of Suzuki Maruti vehicles ordered prior to the recent duty increase would have to bear only a part of the increased cost. AMW will absorb a considerable amount from the increased duty on vehicles booked before the new duty announcement.

AMW has also announced that new orders made up to the 15th of June 2011 will also receive a special benefit.

The new Suzuki Maruti range is powered by the very powerful and fuel efficient K Series engine and consists of the Alto and Alto K10.

Since 1994, the company has been on a continuous growth with high demand for its range. Recently, the company announced that it has entered the elite list of car manufacturers.
