

Tata LPK 1615 Tippers Chosen By Access Engineering

Access Engineering purchased 30 brand new LPK 1615 Tata tippers from Diesel and Motor Engineering (DIMO) for the road development projects in the northern and eastern provinces.

Access Engineering renders their expertise in diversified fields providing turnkey engineering solutions including design, procurement, construction and commissioning of many multi disciplinary engineering projects for their customers both in the state and private sector.

The vehicle handing over ceremony was held under the patronage of Rohana Fernando, COO – Access Engineering, Gahanath Pandithage, CEO -DIMO, Vijitha Bandara, GM – Tata Commercial Vehicles, Arup Baruah, Country Manager – Tata Motors, V K Manathunga, Senior GM – Access Engineering, A A Fernando, DGM – Access Engineering, Nalinda Kurukulasooriya, Manager – Tata Commercial Vehicle sales – Colombo and Rasika Bodhipala, Manager Workshop – Access Engineering.

A special driver training programme was conducted by Hiranya Welaratne for the Access drivers at this occasion. With more than half a century of impressive presence, Tata Motors continues to provide India with commercial vehicles.