The Grand Opening Of Beverly Street, Rajagiriya

Beverly Street, opened its new branch in Rajagiriya with a grand ceremony graced by Chief Guest Gotabaya Rajapaksa, Secretary to the Ministry of Defence and Urban Development.

The launch, which saw the participation of popular Indian teledrama actress

Deepika Singh, featured many events, including a fashion show displaying Beverly Street’s latest collections of men’s, women’s and kids’ wear and entertaining musical and cultural dance items.

Spanning across four floors and a basement, the building complex features Beverly Street’s latest collections, a Nail Studio, an indoor kids’ play area and a restaurant.The Nail Studio will be operated as an independent shop in the shopping complex. The restaurant is headed by Chef Moru and his culinary team, Sri Lankan Chef, Upali Bandara – the former chef of Sri Lankan Catering, Dayalnath – Indian Chef, specialising in both North and South Indian cuisine and Sirilak Suksamran – former Thai Chef at Lagoon, Cinnamon Grand Colombo. It also has a fine dining section that offers multi-cuisines served by these very well renowned Chefs. The lavish complex also consists of a spacious office area and 50 parking slots.

The Beverly Street branch in Kollupitiya was the first store to introduce the concept of 24 hours of service in Colombo. While the branch currently operates till 12am, Beverly Street promises the best of quality among its assortment of various collections at affordable prices, a pledge that is at the core of the renowned brand.

BEVERLY STREET
FUSION 475
NAIL STUDIO

