The Chartered Institute of Marketing (CIM) Sri Lanka Professional Member Support Committee (SLPMSC) has announced its upcoming Members' Fellowship Night 2026, scheduled for June 20, at the Cinnamon Lakeside, Kings Court, Colombo. Designed as a refreshing departure from traditional corporate gatherings, the event, which starts at 6pm, promises an engaging blend of fun, light-hearted humor, and authentic conversation. Set in a relaxed yet premium environment, the evening aims to bring together marketing professionals from across the industry to strengthen connections, exchange perspectives, and unwind in high-energy social surroundings. The program will feature a distinctive line-up of personalities known for their engaging stories and unique viewpoints:

Dayan Fernando: Chief Executive Officer, ANC Campus and Coordinating Principal, Wycherley International Schools

Shanuki De Alwis: Advocacy and Communications Consultant, Trainer and Speaker

Niranjan De Silva: Business Communications Specialist and former CEO of Metropolitan Computers

Compered by Dominic Kellar: Radio Presenter, Actor, Entertainer

The event reflects SLPMSC's commitment to supporting continuous professional development and deepening connections between marketing leaders, practitioners, and emerging talent, in line with CIM's global marketing standards. Speaking ahead of the event, Prashan Costa, CIM SLPMSC Vice Chair of Networking Events, said: "We are delighted to host another memorable night for our CIM members – an exciting event that will provide attendees with valuable networking opportunities.

"Strengthening marketing capability at both individual and organizational levels, fostering high-impact networking opportunities, and building fellowship sits at the heart of the CIM SLPMSC's mission and these events help us to achieve these objectives. We look forward to seeing marketing professionals from a range of sectors and hearing their fascinating insights." Attendees can look forward to an all-inclusive networking experience curated to encourage meaningful interaction:

Refreshments to complement the evening's social atmosphere.

Live entertainment, specially curated to set a lively and engaging tone.

Structured networking opportunities, allowing members to connect with peers and industry leaders in a relaxed setting.

Members and interested parties are encouraged to secure their places early, as capacity is limited. The Members' Fellowship Night stands as a key highlight in CIM Sri Lanka's 2026 calendar, reinforcing the organization's continued commitment to nurturing a well-connected, resilient, and vibrant marketing community in Sri Lanka.
