

Western Union Collaborates With National Savings Bank

Posted on

Keasila Jayawardena, Chairperson, NSB.

National Savings Bank has collaborated with Western Union to provide a safer and easier global money transfer service. Western Union being one of the largest global money transfer companies is headquartered in USA. It has an extensive global network, spanning 200 countries/territories and 130 currencies globally. Now customers can receive money transferred from any corner of the world through this collaboration by producing the PIN along with NIC or passport. The Bank's 260 branches will be connected with Western Union accordingly. "Our valuable customers would be able to receive money from their loved ones from the nearest NSB branch through Western Union with 100 percent Government guaranteed, most reliable, most convenient and well-mannered banking service. Not only that, our clientele can enter in to the most popular promotional campaign, 'Salli Ehen Thagi Mehen', conducted by the Bank annually," said the Keasila Jayawardena, Chairperson, NSB. or driving license to the branch. Bank.