

WORK IS HIS PASSION

Minister Mahindananda Aluthgamage is in charge of the Ministry of Agriculture, and during this short time, he has been able to make great strides in the sector. From increased seed production to cultivation and the introduction of technology to the farmers, there is much activity in the agricultural industry. The Minister has always been straightforward and spoken about what he believes in. His work is his passion.