

BUSINESS TODAY

April 2024

iPhone Sales Constitute over 58 percent of Apple's Revenue in Q1 2024, Highest Levels since Q1 2021

A meeting between Chinese President Xi Jinping and Sri Lankan Prime Minister Dinesh Gunawardena

Cartoonists' Depictions of the President's Role

Global Conversions: Holding the Flag High for Sri Lanka

Suresh Edirisinghe, Chairman and Managing Director of Global Conversions, is making Sri Lanka proud. The UAE-based Sri Lankan company he founded in 2022 is in the business of converting vehicles for the right-hand drive market. He and his team of Sri Lankan mechanics are celebrating the milestone of converting a Hummer EV SUV into a right-hand drive. It was the world's first.

Japanese Ambassador Assures Japan's Support for Sri Lanka's Economic Development Efforts

Larry Summers and Eric Schmidt on Technology and the Global Economy at FII PRIORITY 2024

China Assures Continuous Support to Debt Restructuring Process in Sri Lanka

Nishelli Perera: Undoing the Norm

Nishelli Perera co-founded a home-grown nutraceutical company driven by science-based innovation. In 2016, she and her business partner, Dr. Dilshan Balasuriya, launched YETI, a range of isotonic beverages in Sri Lanka.

