Sahan Kulatunga of MTI Consulting has been recognised for his contribution to Young Entrepreneurs in Sri Lanka.

After the recently concluded Young Entrepreneurs Sri Lanka (YESL) National Awards, at which he was on the panel of judges, he said "With entrepreneurial empowerment comes great responsibilities, and each one of us has a responsibility to spread entrepreneurship to the grass-roots of Sri Lanka and create private sector led growth in this country."

Sahan was awarded for Most Outstanding Leadership at the YESL/ Junior Achievement Worldwide'" (JAW) programme in 1999. He was recently recognised by the Cambridge University, UK, for his expertise in Entrepreneurship Development. He has been contributing on an ongoing basis to the YESL expansion.
